

CONTRIBUTION TO A PROJECTS DEVELOPMENT

FOR ACHIEVING MAJOR MILESTONES FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF PROJECTS

PURPOSE AND RECOGNITION

This award recognises women who played a significant role in achieving major milestones for the development of projects in New South Wales in relation to design, planning, project management, development management or stakeholder and community management, in the construction, building or related industries.

Nominees will be assessed by a panel of industry volunteers based on how they have contributed to the achievement of a major milestone of a NSW-based project in the construction, building or related industries.

ELIGIBILITY

Any woman participating in the area of design, planning, project management, development, management or stakeholder and community management in the construction, building or related industries is eligible for this award. The significant milestone must have been reached between 1 April 2022 and 30 August 2023 in order to be eligible.

Nominations for this award may be made by a nominee or a third party, provided that the nominee(s) has provided their consent to the nomination.

2022 WINNER | DEANNE FORREST, TRANSPORT FOR NSW

As the Project Director on the $2 billion M12 motorway, Deanne Forrest is passionate about delivering infrastructure projects that are sympathetic to the local environment, heritage and community. Balancing commerciality with big picture thinking, Deanne embraced innovative project management approaches, elevated engagement with Indigenous people and prioritised community needs by relocating, rather than closing, a popular bike trail.
