

Conditions of Entry

1. All nominations must comply with any rules stated on the online awards nomination webpage.
2. It is recommended when people nominate somebody else, they should seek endorsement from the nominee for privacy reasons.
3. Members of the NAWIC WA Chapter Council may not be nominated for an award.
4. The judges reserve the right to request further information and documentation from a nominee if required. The judges also reserve the right to determine the eligibility or otherwise of each nomination or consider a nomination which does not fulfil all of the required criteria.
5. The judges may consider a nominee for any other award regardless of whether the nomination has been prepared and submitted for that award.
6. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
7. Winning entries from past NAWIC awards may not be resubmitted, however previous entries that did not win may be resubmitted (provided that the nomination complies with the criteria listed in this booklet).
8. NAWIC reserves the right to extend the final date of entry submissions, or, in its discretion, provide extensions to one or more potential nominees. NAWIC is under no obligation to provide an extension to all nominees, or publish any extension.
9. NAWIC reserves the right to use any nomination promotional or marketing material including photographs taken by NAWIC during the awards presentation breakfast.
10. All submission material remains the property of NAWIC unless the nominee requests the return of the documents after the award presentations.
11. A nominee may be nominated for more than one award, however a separate nomination booklet must be submitted in respect of each award.
12. Joint nominations of up to two women for each nomination are permitted, however both women need to satisfy the relevant criteria.
13. Winners will be required to participate in post award publicity as notified by the NAWIC WA Chapter. Winners will receive their prize after all post award commitments have been completed.
