

INNOVATION IN DESIGN

This award recognises women in Tasmania who have made a significant contribution to the design of a project that has reached practical completion.

Who Should Enter?

Nominees must be 2018/19 NAWIC financial members at time of nomination. Open to women participating in the construction industry in Tasmania, who have contributed to the design of a project that has reached practical completion.

Award Questions

Nominees are asked to prepare their submission using the points below to structure their submission.

Please address all criteria.

1. Provide relevant details of the project, including any unusual or unique features, restrictions, technical complexities and other relevant information.
2. Provide details of the nominee's role in design of the project, including the nature and extent of nominee's contribution to the design, with particular emphasis on:
  - the nominee's application of sound design practices and principles; and
  - any exceptional design outcome achieved.
3. Describe how the nominee achieved satisfaction of the client's functional and aspiration brief for the project, as well as effective consultation and liaison with the user and other areas of the industry.
4. Provide details of the successful application of innovation to the design of the project.
5. How did the nominee take a considered approach to principles of ecologically sustainable development and the beneficial impact of the design upon the consumer, owner, environment and surrounding communities?